Join the IPA Today

A worldwide friendship organisation for serving and retired police officers

Do you fancy a FREE trip to a German Castle nestled among an area of outstanding natural beauty? Yes, then read on!

The International Police Association is offering the unique opportunity for you to enhance your personal development at the world renowned IBZ Gimborn training facility in Cologne, Germany. It lies around 30 miles east of Cologne which benefits from regular flights from many UK airports.

Courses and seminars are organized in close co-operation with the IPA covering a wide range of Police related topics; such as 'More safety on the roads – new initiatives' and 'Trauma and stress – how to cope with extreme experiences'.

How to Enter

The prize comprises of free membership to Section UK plus free participation at a Gimborn Seminar during the year of enrolment. There's just two prizes on offer each year. The winners will have to attend either the summer or autumn seminar and will be selected on receipt of a completed application form/direct debit to become an IPA member, plus a 200 word piece on how they felt the seminar would benefit them in the workplace.
